Traffic Safety Analysis: Paul Trombino

The GIS database is created by a critical index; the index is based on 5-years of crashes to create a heat map. The heat map helps rate the intersections that might have a problem that needs to be addressed whether it is poor lighting, visibility, speed limits, road conditions, or signage. Critical index is rated from 0 to 5.3, a road that is above 1 has a safety issue.

For example:

- 23rd Ave and 27th St access to highway- critical index is 5.32
- Corridor of 8th Ave and 23rd St- critical index is 1.32
- 8th Ave and 16th St – critical index is 2.65

The purpose of this database is to create a guide of the problem intersections that need to be addressed specially with the new development areas.
